

What you put in the library of your mind, determines what you think,
what you feel and what you do.

Fill the shelves in your brain with good words, images and music, and you'll have better thoughts, better feelings and find it easier to do good things!